"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want; he makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anointest my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." (Psalm 23, RSV)

Lord, we thank you for the rain and the changing of seasons, for the shelter you provide us and the food that sustains us. We pray for those who do not have the basic necessities of life. For those around the world who suffer in lands filled with violence. Bless us this new week in our deliberations, interactions, debates, and conversations with charity, truth, justice, and mercy.
